PERSONAL.—Miss Maud Bowering left yesterday for Alexandria, where she will visit friends.—[Fredericksburg.]

—Elizabeth Lee, second lieutenant of the first Cavalry, was yesterday ordered to join his troop at Fort Meade, S. D.

—Miss Cora Hansbrough, of Alexandria, a most attractive young lady, is the guest of her brother, Mr. C. Hansbrough, at Central City.—[Front Royal Register.]

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scott left yesterday afternoon for a visit to Alexandria.—[Lynchburg Advance.]

—Mrs. Mildred M. E. Williams, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. B. Wood, on Pitt street.

—Messrs. James Wade and Arthur Beck, who left here a few days since for Pittsburgh, have returned. They say that the pay of machinists in that city is not as much as it is here.

—Mr. Lloyd Smoot, of Georgetown, and Miss Lorraine Williamson, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Williamson, will be married at Grace Church at 5:30 o'clock to-night.

DEATHS.—Mrs. Frances Chichester LeMayne, aged 55 years, widow of LeMayne LeMayne, and one of the oldest and best-known residents of Fairfax county, died yesterday at her home, "Mount Wellington," in that county. She leaves two children, Mrs. F. E. Hill and Mrs. Virginia Lewis, both of Fairfax. Her funeral will take place from Pohick Church tomorrow at 1 o'clock and the services will be conducted by Rev. Edward Meade and S. A. Wallis. The pallbearers will be the six grandsons of the deceased.—Messrs. Cary, Graham, James and Ferrell Hill, Dr. R. M. Slaughter and Mr. W. M. Huntington.

—Katherine May, the little daughter of Mr. Charles J. Geisendorfer, died at her home on upper King street yesterday evening.

—Miss Bettie Watkins, daughter of Mrs. Mary Watkins, died today at her home in West End after a long illness.

RIVER NOTES.—The fog which had enveloped this section of the country for the past few days lifted at about noon today and the Maryland hills became once more discernible. The rain which had fallen at intervals since Tuesday also ceased, much to the delight of everyone. The steamers which have been running very irregularly for the past few days are now getting back to their schedules. The Norfolk steamer Newport arrived off Maryland point and at an early hour this morning transferred her passengers and freight to the Washington and returned to Norfolk. The Washington arrived almost on time this morning despite the fog. The steamer Randall, due from the lower river yesterday evening, arrived at 3 o'clock this evening.

CONCERT.—A concert under the auspices of Grace Church will be given at the Opera House on Friday evening. The attractions are many and among those who will take part are Mr. Clifford Alexander Wiley, of New York; Miss DuBois and Messrs. Bigley and Rench, of Washington; the Evans Quartette, Miss Pollard, Rev. C. E. Ball and the Mandolin Club, of this city. A delightful little play, "The Mouse Trap," will be given by Mr. Conley and Miss Myra Lee Civalier.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge J. K. M. Norton presiding.—Huse & Loomis Ice and Transportation Co. vs. Mt. Vernon Fire Insurance Company; case dismissed.

A license was issued to Benj. Scrivener to sell liquor at the corner of Royal and Princess streets.

The retail malt liquor license of J. J. Kelly, at 414 King street, was transferred to J. L. Lloyd, at 427 south Royal street.

Eleven lodgers were at the station house last night.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. 50c.

ADVERSE TO A DOUBLE BRIDGE.—At a meeting of the Washington Board of Trade last night a report of the committee on bridges adverse to double bridges across the Potomac—one for railroads and the other for pedestrians and wagons—to be placed alongside of each other, was unanimously adopted. The committee urged that the two bridges would cause too much obstruction to the channel, besides facilitating the deposit of dirt. They recommend the election of a single bridge which would answer both for the railroads and other traffic. This single bridge, they think, should be built at the expense of the railroad company.

U. D. C.—The annual meeting of the Mary Custis Lee Chapter, U. D. C., was held yesterday. Reports were read from the officers. The report of the secretary showed a membership of sixty-five and that during the year the sum of $94.25 had been expended for charitable purposes, the bulk of this going to needy Confederate Veterans. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. G. W. Ramsay; vice president, Mrs. D. J. Howell; recording secretary, Mrs. E. O'Brien; corresponding secretary, Mrs. W. F. Creighton; treasurer, Miss Emily McHaffey; registrar and historian, Mrs. J. E. Alexander.

REVIVAL MEETING.—Revival services will be continued next week in the Free Methodist Church, south Lee street, near Wilkes. Rev. A. T. Miller, conference evangelist, will preach Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; also each evening during the week.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVES' signature on each box, 25c.

We still maintain our reputation for serving the finest oysters in the city. Fried oysters in boxes a specialty at Rammel's Restaurant. Home Phone 63.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

The dredge J. B. Lord is on the ways at the shipyard for repairs.

On account of the inclemency of the weather the meeting of the committee on light to have been held last night was postponed.

A trainload of army horses were shipped from St. Asaph canal yesterday for San Antonio, Tex., in charge of Samuel Parsons.

It is understood that the electric railway will oppose the bill now before the Legislature in regard to taxing their cars, &c., in this city.

The rain of last night and this morning kept some country people from market today, but the attendance was fair for this season. Prices showed no change.

The store at the southeast corner of King and Union streets, was broken open last night and robbed of some tobacco, cigars, &c. The thieves are believed to be boys.

The funeral of the late Mr. Joseph Denty, who died in Norfolk last August, will take place tomorrow evening at 2 o'clock from Mr. B. Whately's undertaking establishment.

Nothing has been heard by the police of Motorman Frank Cook, who disappeared on Tuesday last, but it is believed that he has gone to his home in the upper part of the county.

Considerable excitement was occasioned at the intersection of Duke and Fairfax streets, shortly after 12 o'clock last night, by the noisy and disorderly conduct of several drunken men.

All of the scientific, chemical, mineral and military appliances and equipments formerly used in St. John's Academy, were last night shipped to Rev. E. L. Carney, at St. John's College, Old Point Comfort.

Mr. Joseph Kaufmann, who recently disposed of the boat and shoe department of his combination store to Mr. A. Katz, will conduct the clothing, furnishing and other departments as usual. Mr. Kaufmann is one of Alexandria's oldest merchants, having located here forty years ago.

A joint debate was held last evening at the Ballston schoolhouse, at Ballston, Alexandria county, in which the subject of good roads was discussed. The debaters were James E. Clements and Augustus Davis, jr., and the judges, William C. Shelley, J. B. Henderson, jr., and F. M. Gibson. A number of persons were present.

Morris Carroll, colored, charged with highway robbery, was given a hearing Thursday before the Alexandria County Court House before Justice Stevens and Thompson, and his case referred to the grand jury. Carroll was positively identified by Mr. George B. Lee, of Fairfax county, as the man who waylaid him Friday morning last on Columbia pike, and at the muzzle of a revolver compelled him to surrender $5.50 in cash.

The Confederate Veterans in Washington celebrated General Lee's birthday last night at a banquet given at their hall. Doctor G. Wythe Cook presided, and Major R. W. Hunter read from the original copy of the famous "Order No. 9," issued by General Lee as a farewell address to the army. Speeches were made by Hons. John Goode of Virginia, J. G. Capers of South Carolina, ex-Secretary Herbert, Rev. R. H. McKim, Col. Tom Smith and Gen. M. C. Butler.

Bismarck's Iron Nerve.
Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25 cents, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Drug Store.

J. I. Bevery, Logansport, Pa., writes, "I am willing to take my oath that I was cured of pneumonia entirely by the use of One Minute Cough Cure after other doctors failed. It also cured my children of whooping cough." Quickly relieves and cures coughs, colds, a croup and throat and lung troubles. Children all like it. Mothers endorse it.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic, 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fails, druggists refund money.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCK-OWNERS OF THE ALEXANDRIA INSURANCE COMPANY will be held at the company's office, No. 103 south Fairfax street, Alexandria, Va., on MONDAY, February 5, 1900, at 11 o'clock a. m.

LAURENCE STABLER, Secretary.
JAN 20

VIRGINIA: In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, on the 20th day of January, 1900, Marian F. Henderson vs. Charles W. Henderson et al. Chancery.

Memo: The object of this suit is to obtain a decree for the sale of a lot of ground and improvements at the northwest corner of Royal and Wilkes streets, Alexandria, Virginia, of which John W. Henderson died, seized, and to commute the life estate of Marian F. Henderson therein, and to pay her the amount of such commutation in cash and for the investment of the residue of the proceeds of such sale for the benefit of the infant children of said John W. Henderson deceased.

It appearing by an affidavit filed in this cause that the defendant, Peter Henderson, is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that fifteen days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interest in this suit, and that a copy of this order be forthwith inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the city of Alexandria, Va., once a week for four successive weeks, and posted at the front door of the Court House of this city.

MRS. DAVIS AN ONLOOKER.—The tenth annual banquet of the Confederate Veteran camp of New York, given in honor of General Robert E. Lee, was held at the Waldorf-Astoria last night, three hundred persons being in attendance. While the dinner was in progress Mrs. Jefferson Davis was escorted into the centre box in the balcony overlooking the banquet hall. She was given an ovation. An informal reception of an hour or more was accordingly held by the widow of the former head of the Confederacy.

A letter of regret from President McKinley was read, in which he expressed grateful appreciation of the promptness and patriotism with which the citizens of the South as well as the North respond to the call of country and of their help in contributing to its prosperity and advancement.

PRISONERS RELEASED.—Sixteen prisoners were released from the Charlottesville jail yesterday upon a decision of Judge R. T. W. Duke, of the Corporation Court. At the court's direction Attorneys Harmon and Gordon investigated the legality of commitments made by the mayor, who, under the city charter, has the same powers as a justice of the peace and is required to try police cases arising under city ordinances. In their reports the lawyers say that the city council cannot, under the charter, prescribe confinement in jail as a punishment for the violation of an ordinance; that the only punishment allowed is a fine. Confinement may be allowed as a penalty for non-payment, but cannot exceed thirty days.

MASONIC COMMITTEE APPOINTED.—Grand Master of Masons of Virginia Geo. W. Wright has appointed the following brethren to compose the finance committee of the Grand Lodge for the ensuing year: C. E. Wingo, Sol. Cutchins and Julius Strauss, Richmond; R. T. W. Duke, jr., Charlottesville; W. McDonald Lee, Irvington; Ernest Williams, Lynchburg; W. W. Waddill, Danville; Jas. W. Bell, Abingdon; R. W. Burke, Staunton.

The finance committee of the Senate and House have reported a bill dealing with delinquent lands. It does not repeal the old law, but amends it in almost every provision, so as to fully protect the land owners. The bill is a great improvement on the act of the last legislature, which has been generally condemned, and the committee believes that it will give satisfaction. The act passed by the last legislature brought into the State treasury many thousands of dollars, therefore the finance committee does not feel justified in reporting an absolute repeal.

At Chamberlain Court House yesterday Richard Carter, a negro 19 years old, was hanged for a criminal assault committed on Martha Hatcher, a 6-year old girl of his own race. Carter's neck was broken by the fall, and death was almost instantaneous. From the gallows Carter addressed those who witnessed the execution and warned other negroes to desist from outraging women.

Prevented a Tragedy.
Timely information given by Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, as she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positively proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50 cents and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

To the Public.
I want to let the people who suffer from rheumatism and sciatica know that Chamberlain's Pain-Expeller relieved me after a number of other medicines and a doctor had failed. It is the best liniment I have ever known of. J. A. DODGEN, Alpharetta, Ga. Thousands have been cured of rheumatism by this remedy. One application relieves the pain. For sale by all druggists.

Ladies, clean your face and gloves with La Bore's Glove Cleaner. For sale only by Mrs. C. E. Bradley, 414 King street. Headquarters for Kid Gloves and all the latest novelties in fine millinery and fancy goods.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.
New York, Jan. 20.—The stock market opened quiet but inactive. The local speculation, however, was more confident and prices were fractionally higher.

Alexandria Market, Jan. 20.
There is still no change to note the grain market. Country produce is also quiet but firm.
